

The background of the poster is a photograph of a Gothic church interior. The architecture features high, pointed arches and ribbed vaulting, creating a sense of height and grandeur. The lighting is dim, with a prominent, bright, multi-pointed starburst light in the center, which likely represents the Star of Bethlehem. In the lower foreground, an ornate altar is visible, featuring a central relief or painting, possibly depicting the Nativity scene, and topped with a statue. The overall atmosphere is solemn and festive.
